

AMIS MUSIC EDUCATORS' CONFERENCE

"INNOVATION: teaching, assessment, and technology in today's music classroom"

November 18 and 19, 2011

The American School in London

Register is now open on the AMIS website under "Workshops" – www.amis-online.org

This Conference includes a variety of sessions and workshops across a wide range of topics relevant to music educators working in the international school setting.

Program highlights

❖ WELCOME PRESENTATION

Peter Lutkoski, AMIS President, formerly Head of Performing Arts at ASL currently Assistant Middle School Principal

❖ THE MUSE PROJECT AT ASL (A PANEL DISCUSSION)

Sharing the joy of creativity with students in other departments

❖ AUTHENTIC ASSESSMENT

Assessment within an ensemble and the role of portfolios

❖ INTERNATIONAL MUSIC PERFORMANCE CURRICULUM

A first glimpse of this online individualized curriculum for ensemble-based students

❖ MUSIC TECHNOLOGY

Hands on workshop using Logic and GarageBand

❖ VOCAL DEVELOPMENT AND REPERTOIRE

Working with adolescent voices, emphasis on the changing voice
Voiceworks: Handbooks for Singing, promoting good singing and healthy
Vocal development in all kinds

❖ WARMUPS, TONE BUILDING TECHNIQUES AND REPERTOIRE CHOICES

Working with the ASL Concert Band and followup session

❖ THE ALEXANDER TECHNIQUE

❖ FORUMS FOR DISCUSSION BY PARTICIPANTS

❖ CONFERENCE PRESENTERS INCLUDE:

Keith Montgomery
Jo McNally
Peter Lutkoski
Meté Ege
Dave Papenhagen
Lorraine Davis
Jane Coulston
Gordon Graham

The AMIS Music Educators' Conference offers two very full days of activities for Music Educators on Friday November 18 and Saturday November 19. Registration of delegates will be on Thursday evening, November 17.

Participants are cordially invited to attend a performance of the 2011 ASL High School Musical "The Drowsy Chaperone."

❖ CONFERENCE FEES:

£178 for AMIS Members and Teachers from AMIS Member Schools
£214 for non-members

Fees include: lunches and coffee breaks both days
Reception and informal dinner for participants
Voiceworks publications

❖ CONFERENCE HOTEL: The Danubius Hotel Regent's Park

Rooms are available at a special rate up to one month before the event and must be booked by participants directly with the hotel, using the instructions on the AMIS website. This hotel is within walking distance of ASL.

The American School in London is located in St Johns' Wood in London NW8. It can be easily reached by bus or underground. On the Friday of the conference, a number of classes will be used as venues for demonstrating techniques and repertoire under discussion. All sessions will take place at ASL.

HOST ORGANIZERS:

Gordon Graham: gordon_graham@asl.org
Dave Papenhagen: david_papenhagen@asl.org